They liaise with our IT consultants and vendors to ensure functional operation of computers, printers, phones, and other office equipment (remote and onsite). The HR & OM is part of the team that thinks about the Flamenco Vivo office of the future – whether that is in-person, remote, or hybrid - and helps ensure the organization is in compliance with local COVID-related mandates.

Programming support: The HR & OM works cross-functionally with the Artistic Director and Program Team to execute program-specific vendor contracts throughout the season (including venues, contracted artists, photographers, tech personnel and more). The HR & OM keeps our internal Company event calendar up to date, coordinates staff travel logistics and sources attendance figures from all Company events for tracking and reporting.
